Between 30 October and 7 November 2017, the Faculty of Wood Engineering has received the visit of colleagues from five universities of partner countries, namely: Prof.Dr. Salim Hiziroglu from Oklahoma State University in Stilwater, USA, Prof. Dr. Pavlo Bekhta and Lecturer Natalia Bekhta from the Ukrainian National Forestry University in Lviv, Ukraine, Prof. Dr. Luvuyo Tyhoda from Stellenbosch University in South Africa, Prof. Dr. Fatih Mengeloglu from Kahramanmaras University in Turkey and Prof. Dr. Joannis Barboutis from Aristotle University in Thessaloniki, Greece. The visit was performed under the frame of the Erasmus agreement signed between the Transilvania University of Brasov and the universities of partner countries.

The visitors had interactions with the teaching staff from the Faculty of Wood Engineering and they visited the facilities of the faculty. Discussions took place with the faculty members and the management staff on further collaboration activity planed to be extended both for teaching and training mobilities and research work as well. The visitors also joined a short meeting at the Faculty of Forestry from Transilvania University of Brasov, where discussions regarding future possible collaboration within the field of silviculture took place. The guests from abroad gladly received the invitation to attend a short opera concert performed at the Casa Muresenilor House in Brasov. We hope that Brasov let a special stamp on their hearts in spite of the cold weather in November.

The staff of the Faculty of Wood Engineering would be happy to welcome them to visit Brasov again.
